

Baking/Cooking Club

Instructor: Arwa Mohamed (with Terry-Ann Gilleland as helper)

Day/Time: Thursdays from 3:20pm to 5pm

Who: 14 years and older (12/13 year olds with director approval)

Dates: 9 weeks starting on October 8

Cost per student: $250

This 9-week, hands-on club is designed for students ages 14 and up who are interested in cooking and baking. Each week, students will prepare a different recipe while learning practical techniques that can be applied in their own kitchens.

The club will include a variety of desserts, baked goods, and savory dishes, with recipes ranging from individual desserts and pastries to homemade comfort foods. Students will be actively involved in preparing each recipe from start to finish with a live demonstration, emphasizing the development of cooking and baking skills, proper techniques, and presentation.

No previous cooking or baking experience is required. Enrollment is limited to 7 students.

Food Allergy Disclaimer: Recipes will contain eggs, dairy, and often meat and chicken. All recipes will be nut-free.

Instructor Bio – Arwa Mohamed

A Stonehill Learning Center Graduate herself, Arwa has been interested in cooking and baking from a young age, taking classes and developing her skills since the age of 10. Her experience includes baking and cooking at home as well as working at a boba shop and bakery, where she gained hands-on experience preparing various desserts. She is currently pursuing a degree in Nutrition, with a particular interest in food and the baking industry.
